Obituary for Ruth Charters

With profound sadness the family of Ruth Charters announces her passing at The Scarborough Hospital — General Division on December 20, 2018.

Survived by her husband Robert (Bob), children Randy MacKenzie (Cathy) and Rick MacKenzie (Cathy); step-daughters Anita Charters Amatruda (Paul) and Alisa Charters (Rob Hoban); sister Doris Tapley; sister-in-law Nancy Lockhard; grandchildren Shaun MacKenzie, Matthew MacKenzie (Lauren), Melissa Boyd (Brandon) and Amanda MacKenzie, Camden Amatruda and Kaylyn Amatruda; and, great-grandchildren Mason and Ruby MacKenzie.

Predeceased by her husband Ronald MacKenzie; brother Lloyd Lockhard; brother-in-law Glen Tapley; and, cousin Marven MacMullin.

Born on November 13, 1935 at The Barony, NB to the late George and Irene Carson Lockhard, Ruth lived most of her adult life in Toronto. She enjoyed many summers at Davidson Lake, NB. Ruth was a social butterfly. She loved to entertain for groups big or small. Her family meant the world to her. She passed her time knitting, dancing, cooking and travelling. Ruth will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Ruth and her family are especially grateful for the compassionate care provided by Dr. Janet Roscoe and the Tower 2 nursing team.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Aftercare Cremation and Burial Service. A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on January 26, 2019 at St Mark's Presbyterian Church, 1 Greenland Road, North York. Refreshments to follow in church hall. Memorial donations may be made to St Mark's Presbyterian Church, The Salvation Army or a charity of the donor's choosing.

While Ruth is at peace now, her unconditional love for others lives on in our hearts.
