The St. Mark's Presbyterian Church is located on Indigenous land. This is the traditional territory of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy (aka. The Six Nations Confederacy), the Wendat, and the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation.

St. Mark's Church gratefully acknowledges these Indigenous nations for their guardianship of this land. We would also like to remind and reaffirm, as Christians, Torontonians and Canadians, our accountability to these Indigenous nations, and to all Indigenous peoples and communities living in Toronto.

This land is also part of the Dish with One Spoon territory, a treaty between the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, the Anishinabek and allied nations. This is a treaty to peaceably share and care for this land, its waters, and all of the biodiversity in the Great Lakes region. All those who come to live and work here are responsible for honouring this treaty in the spirit of peace, friendship and respect.
